C G Am C
This is a song for me; it's a song for you;
F G7
It's a song for the animals in the zoo.
C G Am C
It's a song for the leaders of the Earth;
F G7
It's a song for the poor with commercial worth.

+++++++++

C G Am C

And the weather is hot, and the weather is cold,
F G7

And there are storms from a cyclone to behold.
C G Am C

There's dense fog cover everywhere F G7

Great floods somewhere else, so I don't care.

++++++++

C G Am C
We are on a boat; we are on a plane;
F G7
We are on a bus, and we can't complain.
C G Am C
We are on a bike; we are in a car;
F G7
We are walking, as it's not too far.

C C+F Am G7
We speculate on the Bible code,

+++++++++ Am We buy computers and we buy new chairs; G7 We buy shampoo to wash our hairs. C G Am C We buy new cars and houses too; We visit the park and visit the zoo. C C+ F Am G7 Let's sing out of Spring and Summer now; C C+ F Am G7 Get Autumn and Winter in there somehow. ++++++++ G Am Now bring all those carbon footprints down; Ecology has come to town. C G Am Let's tackle youth culture in the schools, So obesity no longer rules. C+ F Am G7 Who'd have thought that nice young chap next door C C+ F Am Could have murdered forty people, maybe more. ++++++++ G Am It's Easter and it's just the same For any festival you care to name. C G Am C It's Christmas time, let's all be merry; G7 Throw up over the side of a cross channel ferry. Repeat twice and fade: It's Christmas time, let's all be merry; Throw up over the side of a cross channel ferry. ++++++++

 ${\color{red}C}$ C+ ${\color{red}F}$ Am ${\color{red}G7}$ As the bombs from the terrorists do explode.
